Waiting for Szabó

Lake Forest College
Spring 1975

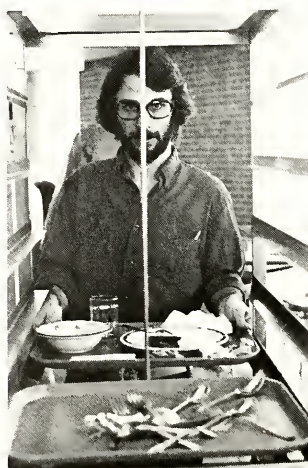

In searching for the true common denominator between all students at Lake Forest College, we recognized that a profound state of being exists which provides us all with food for thought. Yes, everyday the times 7:30, 11:00, and 5:00 set off a unique chain of universal expectations in the Lake Forest student, and into this brief period of waiting, on the threshold of discovery, creeps the timeless, unanswerable question: "WHAT'S THAT? . . ."

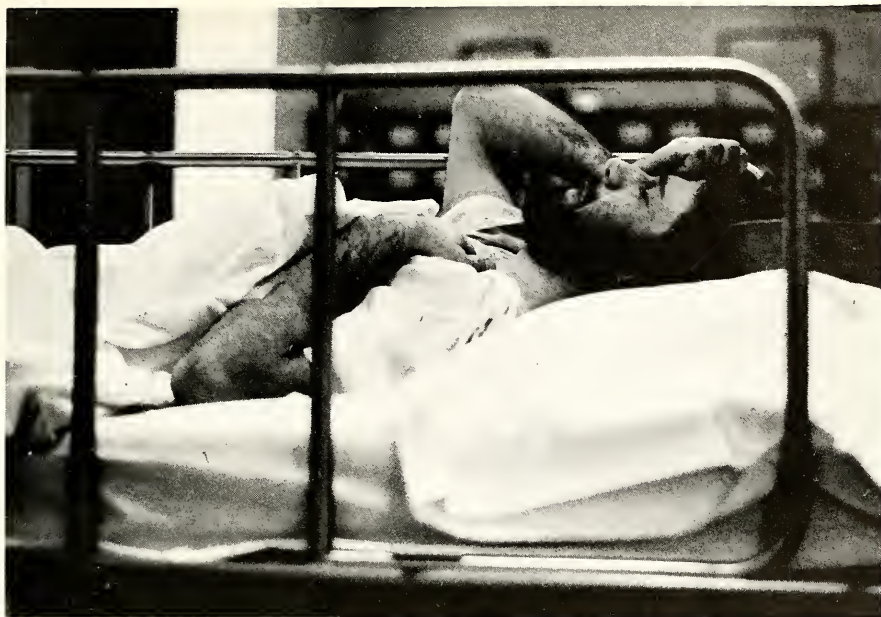

In Memorium

To Ellen Mosey whose unselfish concern for others will remain as a model for us as it was for our predecessors

Dedication

We would like to express our appreciation to two people who were here when we came and will stay after we leave

Arthur Hailand, whose interest and enthusiasm gives us hope for the future. It is rare for a chairman of the Board to have such a genuine concern for and understanding of students.

Millie Guy, our untiring connection with the outside world, whose uncanny memory and refreshing optimism will always be warmly remembered.

And I say that life is indeed darkness save when there is urge,
and all urge is blind
save when there is knowledge, and all knowledge is vain
save when there is work,
and all work is empty
save when there is love;
and when you work with love you blind yourself to yourself, and to one another, and to God.
